Respected Friend

as I did not know but that circumstances might favor Your reaching Jay St Church last Monday Evening I after some hesitations retained Your name among the "invited" -

I cannot tell You how much the magnetism of Your presence was missed -

Remond was unwell Judge Russell promised attendance as did Robert Messis but were all Non Est Inventus also Walker who made no promise.

Rev R. C. Waterston who did not expect to be present. To great acceptance of myself and the audience came in and gave as did Charles W. Slack & an excellent speaker <sup>also</sup> William Craddock

The presentation by the Union Progressive Association was indeed a surprise to me. = at this particular time, the last, I desired and as the matter progressed expected a much larger audience. but other interests among the Colored People and the Storm kept away at least calculation a hundred persons. #

My expenses were 34.22

Receipts 40.50

        
am now ready to proceed without stopping to finish my Book. which when completed I care for but little else.

I have thought some of preparing a Pamphlet History of Crispus Attucks with a summary of the Commemorative Meetings & that those interested can possess a cheap Memorial but I have not decided upon the responsibility, the usual responsibility suggests my announcement of a son about 3 weeks old. Better late than never.

I am indulging in the hope now of an early Day of a visit from

You to my residence 13. Phil. Ry., St. when I can submit some matters for your advice for this I will make arrangements.

Remaining Yours
with much esteem

William C. Hall.

Dear Sir

Observing your communication in a recent copy of the Journal and also the lawyer-like reply of the editor, I enclose to you a slip which I have just observed in the Republican (Weekly) Standard of Mich. 10th, published at New Bedford. It refers to the Police Court of that city, and if not too late, may serve your purpose to a small extent.

Truly yours
Geo. Rempton
